Some Things You Know and Some You Don't Know About Our Towns, County & People

Standard gasoline 18c per gallon. R. E. Goodwin.

FRESH BREAD, always on hand at Corbin's Restaurant.

For land anywhere in Pickens county see or write J. R. Ashmore, "The Land Man."

FOR SALE:—13 acre tract of land, very good house and barn, near Easley mill. See H. E. Couch, quick, at Easley Mill, Easley, S. C.

I am prepared to do your mowing now. Will call every day in the week except Saturday. All work guaranteed. A. T. Winchester.

The merchants of Pickens, have agreed to close their stores during the fair every day from 11 a. m. to 2 p. m., and parties wanting to purchase goods will have to be governed by this agreement.

A business is more respectable than what is termed loafing. A young man had better sell claims by the painful than hang around public resorts, murdering time and his own reputation.

Some people never hand in an item of news for publication, but if we happen to miss an item in which they are interested they are sure to hand us a north pole stare that would freeze the liver of a polar bear.

The cotton buyers of Pickens have agreed not to buy any cotton during the fair from 11 a. m. to 3 p. m., and no wagon will be allowed on main street during these hours. Please govern yourself by this rule, Mr. cotton-seller.

When the common earth worm is cut in two, he won't make a fuss about it; but to the tail end will grow a head and to the head end will grow a tail. There will be two worms instead of one. Misfortune often doubles our strength.

For first-class shingles, either heart or sap, see or write me for prices. Can deliver them at Pickens or give you special price on them at the mill which is 2 miles north of court house. J. H. Earle, Pickens, S. C.

See change of ad of J. A. Peck, the hustling real estate dealer in North Georgia, who sold many farms to Pickens county people. If you are looking for good land at a low price look up along side of him. You can rest assured he will take you right in any deal you make with him.

Have you any news, tell the editor and he will serve it in a proper mode. In case you do not have time to meet him, use the telephone or the mail. You will be helping to make your own paper of greater interest and thereby serve the community. Whatever news may interest you, must surely interest many others.

Among those who have recently left Pickens for college are the following: Sidney Bruce, to Davidson; W. A. Thompson, Gignilliat Christopher, J. Casey Porter and Cleo Mann, to South Carolina University, Columbia; Clifford Lewis, Paul Hester and Marvin Smith, to Clemson; Misses Keith, Laura Rigdon, Lois Lander, Patti Major and Ruby Lander, to Winthrop; Meda Lander, to Greenville Female College; Inez Morris, to Chicora College; Sadie Craig, to Blackstone College, Blackstone, Va.

There are very few "House for Rent" signs to be seen in our town. That is proof of growth and prosperity, but also an indication that more homes ought to be provided for the people who would move here, if houses could be rented. A number of cozy and attractive cottages that can be rented at a reasonable figure is what we need.

Every school boy knows that a kite will not fly unless there is a string tying it down. It is just so in life. The man who is tied down by half dozen blooming responsibilities and their mother will make a higher, stronger fight than the bachelor, who having nothing to keep him steady, is always floundering in the mud. If you want to ascend in the world, tie yourself to somebody.

Mrs. Gus Wilson, wife of Mr. Gus Wilson, died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Robinson, in South Pickens, on last Friday, of consumption, after a lingering illness. Besides her husband, she leaves brother, mother and a host of relatives and friends to mourn her untimely death. Her remains were laid to rest the day following her death in the Pickens cemetery.

Few people have any idea what an incentive it is to both teacher and scholar to know that parents and outsiders are taking a lively interest in their work. We believe the "little folks" at school appreciate such interest more perhaps than the larger ones. Still the effect is not lost on any of them, and we hope every parent will take a hint from this and place the public school on their visiting list.

Let us cultivate a public spirit and talk less and work more. Encourage our local authorities in making improvements. Speak well, talk encouragingly of our town and its bright prospects. It is these many little considerations that makes a town grow. Nature has showered upon us her choicest blessings, and with perfect unity and effort for the good of our common cause, great will be the result.

During the three days of the fair main street will be closed to traffic from Lewis street at J. McD. Bruce's to F. E. Cox's residence between the hours of 11 a. m. and 3 p. m. This is done in order to prevent people from getting hurt or being in the way of any of the attractions, which will all be on said main street. We hope everybody will come to town before that time and be governed by this rule.

When you pull down the town in which is your home, you are pulling down yourself, and when you build up you are building up yourself and your neighbor. Try and banish from your mind the mistaken idea that all good things are away off in some other locality. Give your town all the praise it can legitimately bear. It certainly will do you no harm and will cost you nothing; and above all patronize your home institutions—including the printing office.

Last Sunday Dr. D. L. Lander severed his relation as pastor with the Presbyterian church at Pickens, having already done the same at Easley. Rev. Lander is a consecrated Christian gentleman and labored faithfully for four years at this charge. He is undecided as to where he will locate. While we very much regret to see him leave we commend him to the good people with whom he will cast his lot, feeling sure that he will be a distinct blessing to the community in which he locates. Dr. Lander, may the Lord abundantly bless you in your work.

Mr. A. P. Alexander, of the upper section of the county lost a fine mule one day last week. It was sick for several days, but the cause of its death is unknown.

The Pickens Telephone Exchange is again presided over by that charming little "hello girl," Miss Ada Bolding, who formerly held this position here. She always gave satisfaction while on duty, and we feel sure the patrons are glad that she has again accepted the job.

We call your attention to the head of the Meyers-Arnold Co., of Greenville, announcing their millinery opening. Read it and all of you who can, especially our lady readers, please attend. This company handles only the best of hats, millinery, and dress goods, and will appreciate your patronage and do all they can to merit it. Mrs. Beulah Jennings, of Pickens, is with them, and will be delighted to see her many friends from this county in attendance.

There is a habit and a delusion among a large number of our people to go to some nearby town or city to shop, believing that they can purchase cheaper. We think these good people may be uncooled by their own thought. Please reckon your carfare and time, if the latter is worth anything. If our town merchants try to "soak" you or have not what you want, of course, you are justified to go elsewhere. But first find out by getting prices and see what your home merchants have.

John Lee, of Six-Mile, Pickens county, was among the business visitors to Waihalla last week and met many of his old friends of this section. Mr. Lee formerly resided in the Cheochee section of Oconee, but two years ago he moved to Pickens county, where he purchased land and established himself as a farmer. He reports entire satisfaction with his new home, and that he is doing well. He has good crops, plenty of stock, and has done remarkably well this year, notwithstanding the very unfavorable seasons.—Keowee Courier.

Ho! For Atlanta.

All you folks who have ever went on one of the Mahon & Marchbanks excursions, come on and let's go to Atlanta on next Wednesday, the 27th. This is the last excursion of the season, and a great opportunity for you to get a short outing is offered, which you, by all means, should take advantage of. This is the last excursion of the season to any point, and if you miss going you will have to wait a long time for another chance.

See the agents at the various places for tickets and information.

B. B. LaBoon, at Pickens, can sell you a ticket or tell you about the trip.

Returning, leave Atlanta, Friday morning, Sept. 29th, at 9.00 o'clock, South Carolina time, or 8.00 o'clock, Atlanta time.

Go and see a town that brags a heap, but that is an hour slower than we are. You will never regret the time or the sights you see.

Sutherland-Crenshaw.

Married, Sept. 14th, at the home of the bride's parents, Miss Elizabeth Sutherland and Mr. Feltz Crenshaw.

Miss Sutherland is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Amos C. Sutherland and Mr. Crenshaw is the son of Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Crenshaw.

Both are beautiful characters, and their circle of young friends will greatly miss them.

Rev. W. C. Seaborn, in his modest and impressive manner, performed the marriage ceremony.

Immediately after the ceremony the guests were invited into the dining-room, where delightful refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Sutherland entertained their guests in that good old Southern style that makes one want to stay longer and wish to go again.

The young couple received a number of beautiful and handsome gifts of sterling silver and the congratulations of a host of friends and relatives.

They will spend a few days with the groom's parents and from thence to the city of Atlanta for awhile.

The good wishes of many good friends go with them there and through life.

May their joys last and their sorrows be few.

The Great Cod Banks.

There is just one other great cod bank in the world besides those off Newfoundland. It lies off Cape Agulhas, which is the southern tip of Africa and south of the Cape of Good Hope. The Agulhas plateau is said to be almost a duplicate in size and richness of the north cod banks. But this is too far off, so there is little promise of its appeasing the hungry appetite of the world for cod.
